LONDON, March 29.

BOUT nine laſt night, upon the return of the pollers from Brentford, the mobility grew extremely riotous and tumultuous, ſome perſons who had voted in favour of Mr. Wilkes, having put out lights, the mob paraded the whole town from eaſt to weſt, obliging every body to illuminate, and breaking the windows of ſuch as did not do it immediately. The windows of the Manſion houſe in particular were demoliſhed all to pieces, together with a large chandelier and ſome pier glaſſes, to the amount of many hundred pounds.—From thence they proceeded to the Lord Mayor's houſe in Alderſgate ſtreet, but that being a back houſe, they could not get at it. They demoliſhed alſo, the windows of Lords Bute, Egmont, Sir Sampſon Gideon, Sir William Mayne, and many other gentlemen and tradeſmen in moſt of the public ſtreets of both cities London and Weſtminſter; at one of the above mentioned gentlemen's houſes, the mob were in a great meaſure provoked to it by the imprudence of a ſervant who fired a piſtol among them. At the Duke of Northumberland's houſe at Charing-croſs, the mob alſo broke a few panes, but his Grace had the addreſs to get rid of them, by ordering up lights immediately into his windows, and opening the ſhip ale-houſe, which ſoon drew them off to that ſide. Laſt night a little paſt eleven, a party of the guards arrived from the Tower to quell the mob before the Manſion-houſe, who thereupon diſperſed.

March 30. An opulent elector in a certain borough in the weſt, was lately offered 50l. a year and 700l. in money, for his vote and intereſt, which he nobly refuſed.

This day his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Monaco, at whoſe palace his late Royal Highneſs the Duke of York died, was introduced to his Majeſty at St. James's, and graciouſly received.

April 2. Among the many houſes of perſons of diſtinction at the weſt end of the town that were illuminated on Tueſday night, on account of Mr. Wilkes being elected knight of the ſhire for the county of Middleſex, were thoſe of their royal highneſſes the dukes of Glouceſter and Cumberland.

Monday died in Oxford road, Mr. Alexander M'Cloud; the news of Mr. Wilkes's election affected him in ſuch a manner, that he expired ſoon after.

The expences of the election for Northampton, amount to £. 60,000 at leaſt, to both parties.

Mr. Wilkes during his exile, enjoyed a penſion of 1200l. per annum, by a private ſubſcription of a few friends, among whom are ſeveral right honourables of the preſent miniſtry.

Lord R———m we hear has loſt a thouſand guineas to fifty, by betting againſt Mr. Wilkes.

April 4. It having been reported to a great perſonage, that a liveryman was threatened with the loſs of his place for not voting at the city election agreeable to order, aſked, "If the man had voted according to his engagements?" which being anſwered in the affirmative, it was replied, "Had he voted contrary to his engagement, he ſhould certainly have been diſcharged."

We have it confirmed to us, that Mr. Wilkes will be enabled to diſcharge all his debts, principally by the aſſiſtance of an amiable and patriotic nobleman.

The general toaſt among the popular party, now is, "May Liberty never want a Wilkes, and may Wilkes never want Liberty."

The celebrated Triſtram Shandy was privately interred in a new burying ground belonging to the pariſh of St. George's, Hanover Square, at twelve o'clock at noon, attended only by two gentlemen in a mourning coach, and no bell tolling.

This morning at eleven o'clock, and not before, Mr. Wilkes ſet out for Bath.

It is ſaid that a gentlemen of the firſt eminence in the law, has given it as his opinion, that the outlawry againſt Mr. Wilkes is not legal.

It is ſaid that among the ſeveral flaws in Mr. Wilkes's outlawry, one is, that he was not declared an outlaw, in three different pariſhes in the county where he lived. And it is likewayes ſaid, that the outlawry was not regiſtered in the proper office.

We hear that a number of people will ſoon embark for America, at the expence of the government to ſettle there, with their families.

We hear by a gentlemen who arrived from France, that on Tueſday evening when he landed at Dover, the whole town was illuminated, and every town he travelled through, till he arrived in London.

The Codicil of the will of Sir Andrew Chadwick, Kt. in favour of Mr. Wilkes, is in the following terms "Item I give and bequeath, to John Wilkes, Eſq; late Member for Ayleſbury, 1000 l. as a teſtimony of his intrepid conduct in oppoſing a wicked, corrupt and proſligate adminiſtration."

The following toaſt, is drank every night, "May the light of Liberty never be put out by a Scotch extinguiſher."

On Tueſday night the mob broke the windows of his Grace the Duke of Argyle's houſe in Soho Square, and alſo the windows of his ſon, the Marquis of Lorn's houſe in Argyle buildings, where they did conſiderable damage, every window belonging to the Earl of Bute's houſe in South Audley-ſtreet, were ſo broke that ſcarce a pane of glaſs was left whole.

We hear that an offer was made to Mr. Wilkes by his friends, that if he choſe any one to join candidate with him, they would hold for them jointly; on which Mr. Wilkes replied, that he was infinitely obliged to them for the offer, but as the public had intereſted itſelf ſo much in his favour, he thought himſelf ſufficiently honoured if they choſe him, without preſuming to dictate their choice of any one elſe, and very politely declined the offer.

It is ſaid the damage done to Lord Bute's houſe, by the mob on Monday night laſt, cannot be repaired for leſs that 5000 l. a great deal of rich furniture having been broke to pieces.

April 5. It is ſaid the following changes in the miniſtry will take place in a few days: The Marquis of Rockingham, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury. The Earl of Sandwich, Secretary of State. Earl Temple, Lord Privy Seal. The Earl of Halifax, Secretary of State for North America. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Maſter of the Horſe. His Grace the Duke of Portland, Lord Chamberlain. The Right Hon. Mr. Dowdeſwell, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Earl Gower, Preſident of the Council.

No publication of the Polls for the city of London, and county of Middleſex.

If the S——ſhould order the poll to be printed, Mr. W—'s friends are determined that his voters names ſhould be printed in characters of gold, be ſtuck up at every public place in the city, and a copy thereof, be preſented to each member of the C——t of A——n and C——n C——l, with a motto, &c. &c. And have generouſly reſolved to relieve every liveryman (if any attempt of that kind ſhould be made) who ſhall ſuffer for his freedom in voting for him.

On Saturday laſt ſailing orders were ſent to Portſmouth for his Majeſty's ſhips Niger, Liverpoole, and the Merlin ſloop, to proceed to their ſtation at Newfoundland with the firſt fair wind.

We are informed by letters from Poland, that the brother of the Biſhop of Caminieck is at the head of a new Confederacy which has been ſuddenly formed in Podolia, on the confines of Turky.

As ſoon as the Middleſex, election was ended in favour of Mr. Wilkes, a perſon was employed to carry the news to ſome of his friends at Paris: A native of Switzerland undertook to deliver the ſame in 51 hours; he accordingly ſet out by agreement, and performed the journey in 47 hours, notwithſtanding he was detained nine hours in an open boat on the ſeas, for which he has ſince received an adequate reward. The man was ſo much galled when he came to Paris, that the blood ran out of the knees of his breeches.

Yeſterday Henry Laurens, Eſq; returned to town from Georgia.

Yeſterday ſailed for Halifax, His Majeſty's Sloop Bonetta, commanded by James Wallace, Eſq;

By Captain Minors from New-Providence, we have the following further account of the Brigantine mentioned in our laſt to have put into Harbour-Iſland, and ſuſpected to be a Pirate, viz. that ſhe mounted 16 guns, and had 40 men; that the maſter went up to Providence to get a regiſter, but not ſucceeding, did not ſtay there 24 hours; and ſaid he would go to Philadelphia to get one: And, that a man who had left her, ſaid, ſhe had been run away with from Cuba, by one who had murdered his own brother; and that he, himſelf, was taken by her, off Dominica, in a veſſel laden with mules.

Laſt Friday put in here, bound for New-York from Penſacola, the ſloop Harlequin, Michael Power maſter, having on board Lieutenant Thomas, of the Artillery, and Mrs. Thomas. Before Captain Power left Penſacola, Lieutenant Governor Browne was returned from the interior parts of his government; and a large Schooner from Campeachy, was arrived there, with a conſiderable quantity of caſh, to purchaſe Britiſh goods.——The 15th paſt, he ſaw a Ship off Penſacola, ſuppoſed to be the Anna-Thereſa Packet-Boat going in: And in Latitude 25. 6 N. at the entrance of the Gulf, he ſpoke with the Ship Charlotte, Captain Stewart, out 24 days from the Bay of Honduras, bound for London, all well on board.

The company that ſet out ſome months ago from Maryland, in a Caravan, to view the back lands in all the Southern provinces, have performed that buſineſs, and been thro' Eaſt and even Weſt-Florida; but we have not yet heard their report. Two of them are come here in the Harlequin, and return from hence; Mr. James, the principal, and the reſt, ſet out from Penſacola the 12th paſt, returning by land, in the Caravan.

The Great and General Court of Maſſachuſetts-Bay met at Boſton the 25th of May laſt: His Excellency Gov. Bernard approved of the Honourable Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; whom they choſe for their Speaker; but of the Counſellors then by them elected, he objected to the following, viz James Otis, Joſeph Gariſh, Thomas Sanders, Jerathmeel Bowers, John Hancock, and Artemas Ward Eſquires.

The Rev.
